GOVERNMENT OF INDIA
RURAL DEVELOPMENT
LOK SABHA

UNSTARRED QUESTION NO:2297
ANSWERED ON:04.12.2001
NATIONAL RURAL ROADS DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE
CHINTAMAN NAVSHA WANAGA

Will the Minister of RURAL DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Government have set up National Rural Roads Development Committee (NRRDC) under the Chairmanship of Shr Nitin Gadkari ;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether the Government have issued any guidelines regarding programmes under NRRDC; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

Answer

MINISTER OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI M. VENKAIAH NAIDU)

(a) to (d) The National Rural Road Development Committee (NRRDC) was set up idanuary, 2000, under the Chairmanship of Shri Nitin Gadkari. The Committee was, inter alia, to identify unconnected villages in India, to determine the magnitude of the Programme and assess the requirement of funds and sources of raising the same, to determine the specifications of roads as per soil conditions and to make suggestions regarding the Implementing Agency/ies.

2. No programme is implemented under NRRDC.